Showing Patience To One Another

We always listen to Kalle sing, even though she sings out of tune.

I helped Tomeo with his maths, even though it took him longer to understand.

I went to help Singa up, even though he fell and spilled his drinks onto my shoes.

Now, it is your turn to share.
When have you showed patience ?
Name two examples in school or at home.

1. I _____
even though _____

2. I _____
even though _____

Public Transport Tips

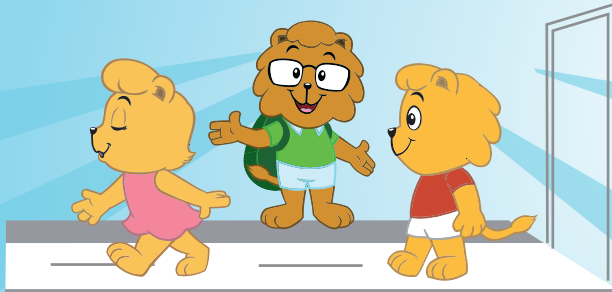

If everyone shows patience and observes proper etiquette* when taking public transport, everyone will have an enjoyable ride !

How to be a patient commuter?

1 Do not be in such a hurry

Do not rush your way through the door. Allow other passengers to alight first and wait for your turn. You will eventually board the bus or train.

2 Stand on the left side of escalator

Stand on one side to allow others to move into the bus . Do not delay the journey of other passengers by blocking the way.

3 Be mindful of your behaviour

Avoid talking or laughing away loudly on public transport as it may disrupt other passengers.

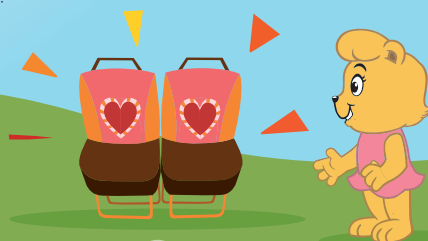

4 Move to the back of the bus

Always move to the back of the bus so that more passengers can board the bus.

5 Give up your seat

No matter where you are heading to, give up your seat to those who need them more than you do. You will definitely feel great for doing a kind and gracious act !

Help Sher find her way

Sher lost her way while finding daisies. Help Sher find her friends by drawing the correct path.

You are getting near.
Please try another route!

Oh dear!
Please try again.

What will you do when you get impatient ?

Do you look for short-cuts ?
Do you just give up ?
Do you feel annoyed and throw tantrums ?

Please don't, because it will not get you anywhere. You have to finish what you started otherwise your efforts will be wasted.

Great things take time.

Remember that good things will happen to you, and you will have the strength to live by your dreams ... only when you are patient !
