Sher's Missing Daisy

Kalle wants to take a photograph of her friends for her scrapbook.

Smile, please!

I can't...

Are you alright, Sher?

There is a missing yellow daisy on my dress! I must have lost it while playing in the garden today.

Don't worry Sher, I can give you my daisies!

They are not the same... The yellow daisy was a special gift from my granny back in Heartcity. She sewed the daisies onto my dress and taught me so much about being thankful to people who make you happy. She also told me that the yellow daisy is a symbol of appreciation!

That's so sweet of her!
We'll help you find the missing daisy!

Everyone searched around the garden for the missing daisy...

Look what I found! Is this the missing daisy?

Oh yes Tosh! It is! Thank you for helping me find my daisy!

At this moment, Kalle snapped a photograph of happy Sher.

This has to be my favourite picture of Sher!

GUBBIES TIPS

Celebrating Kindness Day SG!

Hey Singa, which is your favourite month?

I love the month of May, because everyone celebrates Kindness Day!

Oh yes! I remember receiving yellow daisies from Sher as a token of appreciation.

I received those daisies too! As we celebrate Kindness Day, we are reminded that one person and one kind act can inspire others to be more patient, considerate and gracious. Together, we can build a kinder nation!

Kindness Day SG, an initiative by Singapore Kindness Movement, started in 2013 as an occasion for Singaporeans to come together in celebration of kindness and graciousness, to inspire one another and transform our society into a nation of kindness. Kindness Day SG is celebrated on the last Friday of May, coinciding with the final day of the second academic term.

Thank someone for being kind!

Thank you for always helping me with my school work. Here are some daisies for you!

Yellow is the colour of warmth and sunshine. The cheerful and bright yellow gerbera daisy is a symbol of appreciation.

Compassion Compass

In Kindsville, being kind is taken seriously. When taking the bus, everyone queues up and greets the bus driver in their friendliest voice. In the school canteen, everyone returns their tray after meals and keeps the tables clean.

Do you know that the Compassion Compass tower in Kindsville detects kind acts? Kind acts will increase the number of hearts on the Compassion Compass.

How would you rate your family's kindness level? Raise the compassion level reading by doing more kind acts together as a family! Remember to paste a heart sticker on the Compassion Compass after that! (You can find these stickers in the sticker page)

write to Singa

As you celebrate Kindness Day SG in the month of May, you can also play a part to raise the Compassion Compass level in Kindsville by doing simple acts of kindness!

Write or draw to Singa and the Kindness Cubbies to share your kindness stories. Remember, a nation of kindness starts with you!

Dear Singa,
My name is Olivia Yew and I am 9 years old. Thank you for letting me know more about kindness. I learnt that kindness is not only about giving others a helping hand, caring and sharing. Queuing up to buy food is also an act of kindness. I did some kindness challenges such as saying "please" and "thank you", returning my tray and picking up litters in school. I also care for my family members, stand to the left of the escalator, smile at someone, greet my teachers and share my stationery with my friends.

Thank you Olivia and Clarabelle for your letters and drawings! We are always happy to see that many of you are actively carrying out kind acts in school or at home. Keep it up!

Dear Singa,
My name is Clarabelle Lim. I am 10 years old and I am a Singaporean. I help to clean the school when I am free. I also help my grandmother sweep the floor. Hope you like my drawing!
