

Kindsville Times Junior

Primary 1 and 2
Issue 1/ 2020

Hi friends!
Sorry I am late. I was just setting up my
"Kindsville Classroom"
online account!

Have you set up your accounts?

Yes!

I took a really long time
to decide on a password.
It is super special and unique. I am sure none of you can guess it.

... Could it be...
"I LOVE DAISIES"?

No, it can't work.
You need to have numbers in your password too.

Oh yeah. Is it...
"KINDNESS101"?

No! I told you, it is not that
easy to guess!

I can't take it!
You are making me
so curious!

Fine, I guess
I can tell you since
we are friends! -

Wait, you are not supposed to -

It is "R8INBOW"!
"Rainbow", but with a number "8".

Sher!
You are not supposed to tell anyone your passwords!

Why not?

It is dangerous. It means other people can log in and use your account without your permission.

You could get into all kinds of trouble.

Oh. I did not think about that.
I will be more careful
in the future.

What other online dangers should we look out for, Singa?

We should be careful of strangers on the Internet. We can't see their faces so we won't know who they really are.
They could be bad guys
in disguise!

Yikes,
I don't want to talk to bad guys!

The safest is not to talk to strangers online and avoid clicking on suspicious websites or emails. Ask your parents or a trusted adult when you are surfing the Internet so that they can guide you away from dangerous websites and emails.

Emails from strangers can contain viruses that can harm your computer!

I wish I knew this earlier. A few months ago, I opened an email out of curiosity, and it made my computer crash!

Wow. That sounds serious.

It was! I had to trouble my parents to get it repaired.

Oh dear.

Thanks for sharing these Internet safety tips, Singa!

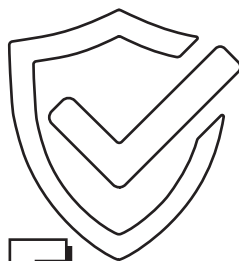

You're welcome!
I hope they help you

GETTING TO KNOW OUR FULL-TIME NATIONAL SERVICEMEN (NSFs)

Did you know that in Singapore, all males are to perform National Service (NS) when they are 18 years old?

National Service personnel have different jobs. They can be in the Singapore Armed Forces (SAF), Singapore Civil Defence Force (SCDF) or Singapore Police Force (SPF).

Singapore Armed Forces (SAF)

Servicemen in the SAF train and work to keep Singapore safe. There are many different jobs in the SAF from being a soldier in the Army, a pilot in the Air Force to keeping our seas safe in the Navy.

REPUBLIC OF SINGAPORE NAVY

REPUBLIC OF SINGAPORE AIR FORCE

SINGAPORE ARMY

Singapore Police Force (SPF)

The SPF is made up of the policemen we see patrolling our neighbourhoods. They work with the community to keep Singapore safe and respond to incidents when we call 999. They also ensure the safety and security of our buses and trains and patrol Singapore's coasts to prevent any intruders from coming in.

Singapore Civil Defence Force (SCDF)

Firefighters and paramedics work in the SCDF, who respond when we call 995. They must train very hard so that they can perform their job quickly in dangerous situations to save as many people as possible!

WHAT CAN YOU DO TO SHOW APPRECIATION AND RESPECT TO OUR NSF's?

1 Find out more

Ask your dad, uncles, brothers, or even male teachers what they did when they were in NS! By listening to their stories, we can better appreciate the efforts they have put in to overcome different challenges.

2 Say thank you

Thank the people you know who have completed NS by giving them a thank you card! We should be grateful for their hard work and determination in keeping Singapore safe.

FEATURED LETTERS

Elliana Carr
Global Indian International School, P2 (2019)

Dear Singa,

I lost my favourite eraser in class. I was very sad. The next day, I saw a piece of paper on my desk. It was a note from my classmate, Amber. My eraser was with the note. Amber found it on the floor. I thanked her and felt happy!
