

KINDNESSES

in the little things

kindness is like a freshly ^{baked} COOKIE, comes in all forms that are kinda Sticky.
soft and sweet on the inside,
given to everyone playing outside.

kindness is like a SEESAW on a hot sunny day, making sure everything is fairplay.
supporting each other — up and down... together there will never be a frown. 😊 kindness is like warm MILK in your tummy, helping you when you feel sickly.

encouraging you to grow STRONGER,
for your own happily ever after.

kindness is like the words you  SPEAK... so sweet, everyday of the week.
I've done my part warming a heart,
when are you gonna start?
