DEAR PARENTS/GUARDIANS,

We have reached the last issue of Kindsville Times for 2021! Thank you for encouraging your child to open up this little book that you are holding. We hope this newsletter has been a useful resource for both you and your child as a parent-child bonding material while learning more about kindness.

In this issue of Kindsville Times, we recapped the 5 magic words that has been introduced this year. We hope your child has been using these words to spread kindness at home or in school.

The long awaited holiday season is quickly upon us! Singa is definitely looking forward to hear from your child about your holiday adventures, so be sure to drop us a mail!

Happy holidays and stay safe!

LET'S USE THE 5 MAGIC WORDS

The holidays are here! Sher invites the Kindness Cubbies to her house to have fun!

Hello everyone!
Welcome to my home.
Please come in!

Wow! Your house is so clean!

Yeah, it is so pretty!

Let's have some fruits!

Thank you, Sher!
You are so kind.

Thank you, Sher!
I love to eat fruits!

YOU'RE WELCOME!

Hey Singa! Don't push! Look at what you did!

Oh dear, I am so sorry for pushing you, Tosh. I should have said "excuse me" instead of pushing you to get my fruits. Are you okay?

Yes, I am alright. We need to clean up.

I'll help to clean up!

Yeah, let's clean up and go play games!

HOW MANY MAGIC WORDS DID THE KINDNESS CUBBIES USE?

Colour in the words and pictures!

WHAT SHOULD THE CUBBIES SAY?

Help Singa and the Kindness Cubbies choose the right words to use. Circle them!

Hi Singa, is this your new bicycle?
Can I please / sorry have a try?

Excuse me / Thank you , Kalle!
I'm coming through!

Sure! I'm welcome / sorry for blocking your way.

Thank you / Welcome , Singa, for letting me ride your bicycle!

You are welcome / please !

THE KINDNESS DIARIES

of Singa and the Kindness Cubbies

I LOVE
MY FAMILY!

SINGA

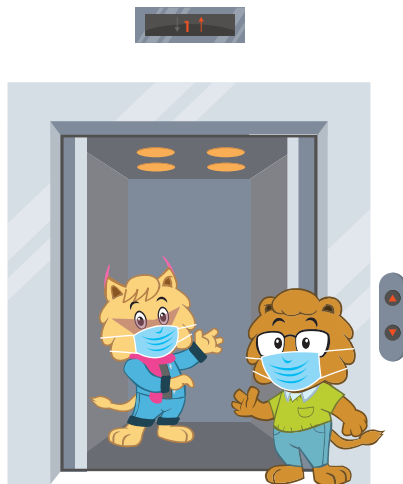

30 July 2021

I want to thank my family for taking care of me, helping me with my homework and cooking for me. I must learn to take care of myself too.

TOSH

6 August 2021

I said 'hello' to my neighbour in the lift today when I was going home. I am very happy because he said 'hi' to me too!

KALLE

11 August 2021

When I was playing games on the computer, I saw an email with a link. The email said I won a new phone! I was going to click it when I remembered my dad and mum telling me that I should not open emails from people I do not know. So, I did not click on it and told my parents about it!

SHER

20 August 2021

I had a lot of fun drawing with Kalle today! She helped me with my drawing. Thank you Kalle!

TOME0

4 September 2021

Today, my teacher read a story about people giving food to others who needed food. I want to help others too! Maybe my family and I can do something like this as well!

★ Start your own kindness diary too! Record how you feel about your day in school or at home, what makes your day, or even fun and kind things you wish to do with your friends.

LET'S PLAY

It's family game time!
Invite your family to play
this together and see who finishes the game first!

HOW TO PLAY

You will need a counter for every player and a die.
Make them using the template on page 13.

Take turns rolling the die
and move your counter forward according to the number on the die.

Complete the tasks as you move along and share your answers with your family.

The first person who lands on the finishing star wins!

DELIVERY DRAMA

In this latest episode, Singa and the Kindness Cubbies celebrate the start of the school holidays with a food delivery party! Find out what happens when the delivery order goes wrong and how the Kindness Cubbies decide to help.

Season 5
Episode 6

This party to celebrate the start of school holidays is a fantastic idea!

I've ordered food delivery!

The food delivery arrives, but the order is wrong.

I'm sorry! There are just too many orders...

Hey, I did not order burgers! Where is my burrito?

Yeah, we should at least say thank you.

Hey Tomeo, we can ask nicely.

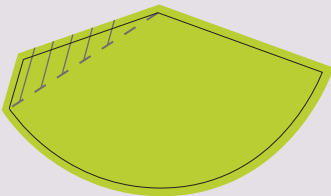

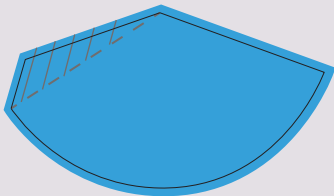

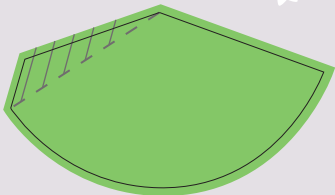

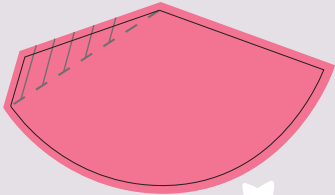

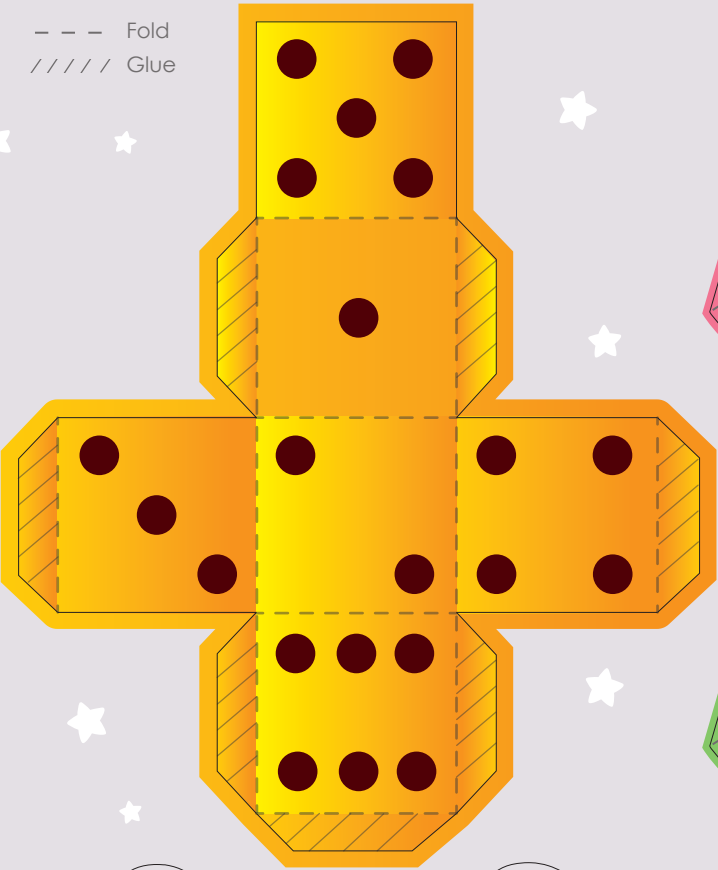

But I just want my burritos!

And my chicken wings!

THE WORLD OF TOYS

Creating toys using recyclable materials

Let's Learn About Recycling!

Recycling is the way we create new things out of the things we throw away. Do you know what you can recycle? Complete the words below to find out!

Get creative with your family!

Did you know that we can make new toys and games using recyclable materials that can be found around us? When we recycle, we produce less rubbish and less trees will need to be cut down for our new toys! Recycling helps us show care to the Earth!

Together with your family members, follow these simple steps and learn how to make fun toys out of your recyclable materials.

1 Hunt for all the recyclable materials around your house!

2 Think about what you can make. You could create a toy that you have played before or a toy that is totally new! Here are some toy ideas to get you started!

3 Good job in making a toy out of recyclable materials! Now, enjoy playing with your family and friends! Share how you made your toy and encourage them to recycle too!
