“Firstly, I would like to thank everyone who was involved with me during the process of creating (book’s title) / this book. Special thanks to my teacher, Mr Yow, who has provided me with the opportunity to take part in this event. A big thank you to my teammates, Chan Ching, the main illustrator who drew most of the adorable, simplistic yet eye-catching pictures, Queenie and Eewoon, our beloved writers who assisted us in brainstorming a fantastic and fluid plot and (Publisher’s name), who has assisted us to issue a virtual copy of (book’s title) / the book. I could be never wish for a better team than a team with you all, I am very blessed and grateful to have these cooperative, friendly and diligent teammates to help make this dream come true.” - Koeby, writer and illustrator

Sure thing mum!

Peter, do you want to follow me to the supermarket?

Supermarket

Mum, let me go and find my chips while you find your groceries.

Great idea!

You can't catch me!

HAHA!

OUCH!

She looks scary
She may attack me if I approach her. Anyway, someone will help her even if I don't.

I better walk away if I don't want to get into trouble.

LET ME HELP YOU!!!

"Thank you!" said Tiger.
It is the first time ever that someone approach and offer help to her .

I feel like we should run away.
Look at her big scar, that is so scary!

But she fell down because we bumped into her while we are running at the supermarket

Let's apologise to her!

“We are very very sorry Tiger!” Hippo and his friends bowed and apologised.

It's ok.

I should have help and not waiting for others to do that. Also, I shouldn't judge tiger by her appearance where are you?

My mum is calling me.
I have to go now.

Bye

Oh what a bright and fine day for Peter and his mother to head to the supermarket!

But will it still be bright and fine when three little troublemakers are up to some mischief?

Or will Panda and friends figure out a brilliant way to turn those frowns upside down?

There's only one way to find out!
