RACIAL HARMONY DAY

Our Multicultural Mosaic

Dear friends,

21 July is coming! It's the time to observe Racial Harmony Day; a day to remind ourselves about the importance of racial harmony.

What is racial harmony? Join Singa and the Kindness Cubbies to learn about multi-racial Singapore and how to show respect for the different communities and cultures!

You can also look out for the exciting Racial Harmony Contest on page 14.

Let's learn about racial harmony together!

Cheers,
Singa

Let's Play Together

IT'S RECESS TIME!

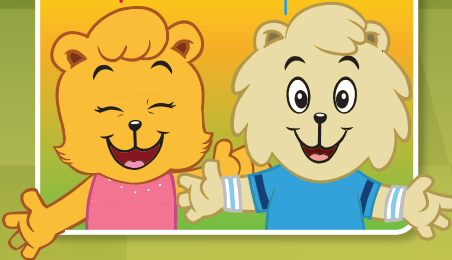

1 Shall we play 'catching'?

2 Sure!

3 Let's ask Sher and Tomeo, too!

4 I'd love to play.

5 Thanks for asking me!

6 Why don't we ask Cliff, too? He looks lonely...

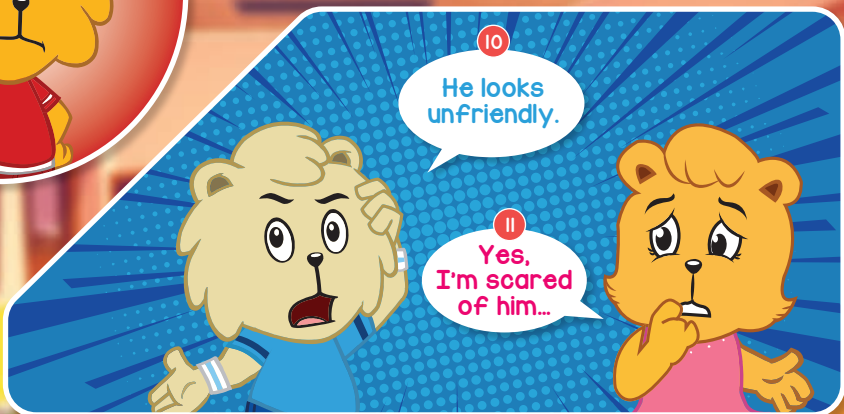

7 No way!

8 He's blue... that means he's a Snow Saber!

9
What do you mean?

10
He looks unfriendly.

11
Yes, I'm scared of him...

12
He does not look like us.

13
He is not one of us.

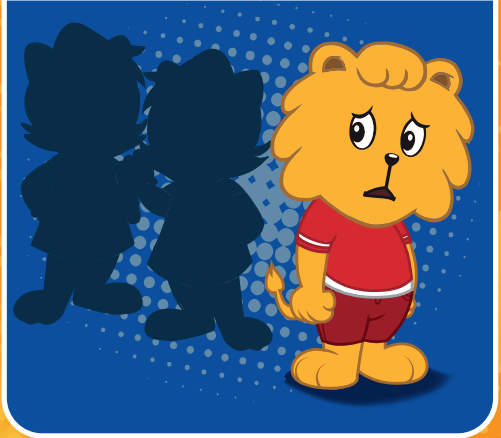

14
Oh dear! Those are unkind words! Cliff might just be shy. We should not judge him by how he looks.

15

Imagine how sad you would feel if you were excluded just because you look different...

16

I know Cliff is nice and kind. I've played with him many times and he's a good team player.

17

You should get to know Cliff better. I really like playing with him!

18

Singa's right...

19

I remember when I first came to Kindsville... People made fun of me because I was from a different city.

20

They stayed away from me because of the way I speak. I felt so sad and lonely.

21

Luckily, I met many kind cubs who accepted me as their friend!

22

Yes. I was hesitant to talk to Sher at first, but I'm glad I did. She has become our good friend!

23

Thank you, Tosh!

24

Yes. Let's be kind and ask Cliff to play with us!

25

Okay!

26

Hey, Cliff. Do you want to play 'catching' with us?

27

I would love to! Thank you for inviting me!

EVERYONE IS UNIQUE!

All of us have our own amazing qualities and deserve to feel proud of ourselves. Join the Kindness Cubbies as they learn about respecting and being kind to others in this issue of Kindsville Times!

Draw a picture of yourself below and tell the cubbies what you are proud of on the next page.

I AM PROUD OF WHO I AM. I AM A PERSON WHO...

Uses kind words with my family and friends.

Loves to make new friends.

Greets my neighbours.

Holds the door for others.

Keeps my school clean.

I CHOOSE TO BE KIND!

What can you say or do to be kind to a friend who has been left out by others?

Choose the following options by ticking one or more boxes. You may also write or draw your own idea in the last box.

Ask the friend to play with you.

Ask the friend if he needs your help.

Ask the friend to eat with you during recess.

Ask them how they are feeling.

Remember, we can work together to make the world a kinder, safer and fairer place!

Let's Explore

LET'S EXPLORE OUR MULTICULTURAL SINGAPORE

Have you noticed how every celebration in Singapore is just so colourful? Many festivals we celebrate in our communities use colours that have special meaning.

Below are just some examples. You can fill the shapes with stickers from the sticker page as you explore our multicultural Singapore.

Chinese Culture

For many Chinese, the colour red is a symbol of luck, life and happiness. This is why red packets are given during Chinese New Year. They symbolise good wishes for the person receiving them.

Malay-Muslim Culture

Green is a colour that is commonly used by the Muslims. During Hari Raya Puasa celebrations, green packets are given to parents, elderly relatives and children.

Festival decorations are usually green, and food items such as ketupat and lontong (rice cakes) are also wrapped in green leaves.

Indian Culture

To the Hindus, the colour red signifies purity. Colours are a feature in traditional art forms like rangoli or kolam, This is often seen during festivals such as Deepavali.

Colour also plays an important role during weddings as brides are traditionally dressed in red.

Let's Learn!

OUR MULTICULTURAL MOSAIC

Singapore is home to many different communities so we are able to learn and enjoy many things from living with people from the different communities.

Living in multicultural Singapore is very fun and interesting! We can eat many types of food like yong tau foo, roti prata and nasi lemak. We celebrate different festivals together. Festive lights decorate the streets during the different festivals. We also see special decorations in our schools, homes, buses and on MRT trains.

These festivals and food make Singapore a multicultural mosaic. Scan the QR code below and watch a video to find out more!

Contest

"What does Racial Harmony mean to you?"

Share your kindness stories with Singa on Racial Harmony Day!

Write, draw or send us photographs of what racial harmony means to you and what you would like to do to strengthen racial harmony in Singapore. You may write your message on the next page.

CUBBIES SAY

I will not exclude anyone from playing with my friends and me just because they're different.

My family and I will wish our neighbours during festivals.

I will ask my friends if I may share my food with them.

I will help everyone, regardless of who they are.

I will learn more about the various ethnic groups in Singapore.
